

Stand Up for Religious Freedom Rally
June 8, 2012
12 p.m.
State Capitol Building (Front Steps)
Little Rock, Arkansas

For the first time in our nation's history, the federal government will

- Force religious institutions to facilitate drugs and procedures contrary to their moral teaching. Furthermore, it will purport to;
- Define which religious institutions are "religious enough" to merit an exemption;
- And set a dangerous precedent that puts the religious freedom of every faith community at risk.

Rally with us in support of religious liberty! The rally will take place at noon on Friday, June 8, at 12 p.m. on the front steps of the Capitol Building in downtown Little Rock, and will last one hour. Similar rallies will take place in other major cities across the nation during that time. We will have the opportunity to hear from multiple speakers about the importance of religious liberty.

Join us. Call others to join us. We need you there to stand up for religious freedom. Go to June8LittleRock.com to register for the rally.

This rally is being organized by faith, political, and community leaders in Arkansas with assistance from Family Council, a non-profit organization based in Little Rock. Register for the Stand Up for Religious Freedom Rally by visiting www.June8LittleRock.com.
